what this will kit is all about

... making wise, balanced choices
for the glory of God.

Dear Friend,

None of us likes to think about dying. We just don't. But if you've placed your trust in Jesus, then death has lost its sting.

So when one day your body gives up its ghost as the saying goes, you will be promoted to glory to spend your eternity rejoicing in the presence of our King, praising Him forever.

Hallelujah!

And that gift of eternal life is one that you can help pass on to generations to come, as you consider leaving a living gift to Christianityworks in your will, towards God's work of saving souls.

Think about it – you've worked hard all your life, but the assets that you've accumulated will one day pass to others.

What this booklet is all about, is helping you to make wise, balanced choices in how you will ultimately steward and distribute the assets that God, in His wisdom, has placed in your hands.

May His Spirit guide you, as you make wise choices for His glory.

Berni Dymet, ceo

And this is eternal life,
that they may know you,
the only true God,
and Jesus Christ whom
you have sent.
(John 17:3)

our Father's heart

Deep within the mighty Father-heart of God beats a love so great, that it's completely beyond words.

So to express that love in a language that we could understand, He sent the Word, His only begotten Son, so that whosoever believeth in Him would not perish but have eternal life.

And in His Great Commission, Jesus gave each one of His disciples a role to play. To be, in effect, the beating heart of God on this earth.

Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.

But how are they to call on one in whom they have not believed? And how are they to believe in one of whom they have never heard? And how are they to hear without someone to proclaim him? And how are they to proclaim him unless they are sent?

As it is written, "How beautiful are the feet of those who bring good news!" ... So faith comes from what is heard, and what is heard comes through the word of Christ. (Romans 10:13-17)

There is no greater gift that any of us can give, than to pass on the Good News of Jesus.

God our Saviour ... desires everyone to
be saved and to come
to the knowledge
of the truth.
(1 Timothy 2:3,4)

He Needed the Good News

“ I’m a recovering drug addict. My addiction took me to low places in my life. I’ve hit the ones I love. I’ve cheated on the ones I’ve loved ... all for one reason.

I didn’t feel loved. I felt rejected and alone through many parts of my life. Like no matter what I did right, I still didn’t measure up to the expectations of the world ... until I found God.

The Fresh devotions I get every day from you remind me that God is always here for me. It reminds me that I don’t have to turn to the way of the world to feel loved, that I have a Father in heaven that loves me. It can be the difference between a good day or a bad day.

It’s amazing how someone you don’t know can send a word that relates so much to my day-to-day life.”

Thank you!!!

(J.B., USA)

But God proves his love for us in that while we still were sinners Christ died for us.
(Romans 5:8)

some guiding principles

Here are some balanced principles in helping you to think through how you might distribute the assets that God has entrusted to you.

Pray First

As with all important decisions, seek God's will in prayer because the only sort of prayer that the Bible teaches about is the sort that has powerful results.

Committing these important decisions to prayer will ensure that your will ... is part of God's Will.

Make Sure It's Fair

Your will should be manifestly fair to your family and any other important people in your life. "Cutting" someone like that out of your will is a decision that should never be taken lightly, or in haste.

Wills are often challenged these days and courts will invariably consider fairness in making a determination.

Look After Your Family First

When drawing up a will, we truly encourage you to think of your family first. Make sure that your loved ones are looked after. This is a godly and biblical thing to do.

Ensure that it's Legally Sound

Depending on your situation, wills can be complex documents. Even with the simplest of wills, there can be things that we ourselves may not think of.

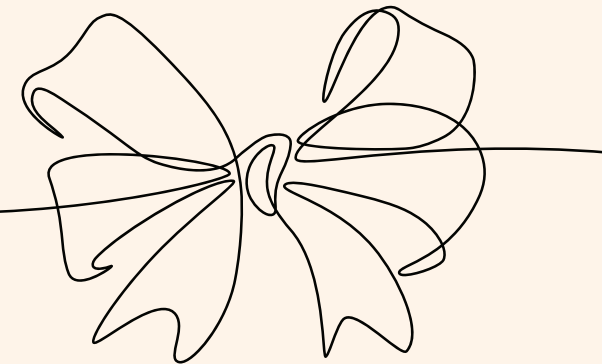

And sadly, some people – especially the elderly – can find themselves pressured by family or friends.

So we strongly encourage you to get your own, independent legal advice.

Supporting God's Work

Consider the ministries through which God has blessed you or that He may be laying on your heart. Ask yourself these two questions: Are they God-honouring (investigate, ask questions) and do they have an eternal impact?

If so, consider supporting them with a living gift in your will. Who knows, your gift (as is God's heart) could be a blessing to "a thousand generations" (Deuteronomy 7:9) remembering christianityworks with a living gift in your will

When you leave a living gift towards Christianityworks' mission of seeing countless lives transformed as we proclaim Christ through the media around the globe, you can be certain of this ...

That it will be put to work expanding the reach and impact of the Gospel in the lives of real people, in real places.

Most frequently that happens by using bequests like yours to kick off new initiatives in countries, cultures and languages where many have never heard of Jesus or received Him into their hearts.

Often, a bequest provides "seed capital" that encourages others to contribute as well, to make your living gift go even further.

But always, always, it will be used to lead many people into a rich, powerful, dynamic relationship with Jesus.

Your gift truly will be ... a living gift!

Go therefore and
make disciples of all nations ... and remember,
I am with you always,
to the end of the age.
(Matthew 28:19,20)

An open Bible lies on a wooden pier or beach chair. The sun is setting in the background, casting a warm, golden glow over the scene. The Bible is open to a page with text, and the pages are slightly aged. The background shows a sandy beach and the ocean waves.

The Word of God is alive and active. It is so powerful that a single verse of Scripture can change a life for all eternity.

A living gift in your will can make that happen for countless more people, right around the globe.

For the word of God
is alive and active.
Sharper than any
double-edged sword ...
(Hebrews 4:12)

impacting lives for eternity

A Life Lost So Soon ... Impacts Millions

Following his untimely death, a young farmer left much of his estate to the ministry of Christianityworks. He had previously come to faith in Jesus through one of our radio broadcasts, praise God.

But between his passing and when his estate was finalised two years later, his farm was re-zoned from rural to residential!

The Lord multiplied his giving in the most miraculous way.

Since then, his gift has been used over and over again, to transform millions of lives around the globe with the Good News of Jesus Christ.

His gift truly was ... a living gift!

He who supplies seed to the sower and bread for food will supply and multiply your seed for sowing and increase the harvest of your righteousness.
(2 Corinthians 9:10)

what comes next?

The final distribution of the assets that God has given you to steward, will be your last act of service to Him on this earth.

So be intentional. Pray for God's guidance. Seek wise counsel. Be balanced and fair in how you choose, under God, to distribute your assets.

And definitely make an appointment with your own solicitor.

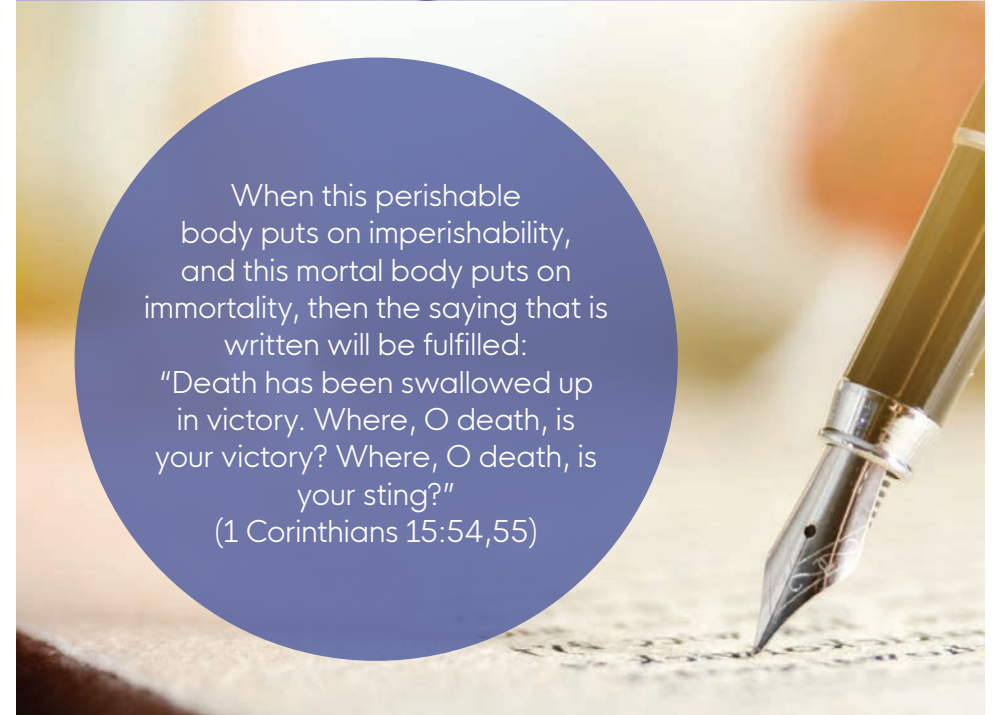

If you don't yet have a will, the time to act is now.

If perhaps your circumstances have changed, or it's been a long time since you reviewed your situation and your wishes, then now, too, is the time to act.

May the Holy Spirit lead you and guide you into His will for His glory, in Jesus' name. Amen.

When this perishable body puts on imperishability, and this mortal body puts on immortality, then the saying that is written will be fulfilled:
"Death has been swallowed up in victory. Where, O death, is your victory? Where, O death, is your sting?"
(1 Corinthians 15:54,55)

Hindu Nurse in India Accepts Jesus

“ I am working as a nurse. Due to pandemic situation, I lost my previous job and at that time I got a call from my friend that there is a job vacancy, so I joined this new clinic.

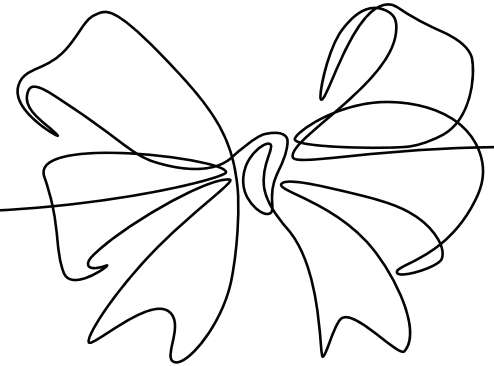

The doctor madam who hired me noticed I was very sad. All she did was started sharing the Christianityworks' WhatsApp 'Fresh' messages with me in Marathi. I am not from a Christian background but when I contacted you, Pastor Sam prayed with me and on that very day I accepted Christ as my personal Saviour. Those messages and that prayer changed my life!

I am feeling completely free today. I want to be baptised soon. I thank the Lord for your WhatsApp ministry to me and I pray that many more lives will be touched like mine. ”

(M.V., India)

So we are ambassadors
for Christ, since God
is making his appeal
through us.
(2 Corinthians 5:20)

how to leave a living gift

There are a number of ways to remember Christianityworks in your Will:

- A set dollar amount
- A percentage of your estate
- A specific gift, asset, or property
- The residue of your estate

Here is some suggested wording that you may include in your Will:

I hereby bequeath to Good News Broadcasting Association Limited ABN: 33 113 469 195 (trading as Christianityworks), free of all taxes, duties and expenses, the sum of $_____

[or "the residue of my estate"]

[or a description of assets or property]

[or ____ % of my estate]

for the general purposes of the ministry.

A receipt signed by an authorised officer of Christianityworks shall be a full and sufficient discharge to my Trustee(s) who shall not be bound to see to the application thereof.
